Positive Proof

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Barre.

Because it's the evidence of a Barre citizen.
Testimony easily investigated.
The strongest endorsement of merit.
The best proof. Read it:
M. I. Spaulding, 16 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I had kidney trouble for five years, brought on I believe, by my occupation. After a hard day's work there was such a severe pain in my back that at night I could hardly sleep. Dark spots often appeared before my eyes and the kidney secretions plainly showed that my kidneys were at fault. The secretions were too frequent in passage, highly colored and contained sediment. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Drown's drug store, stopped the backache and corrected the kidney weakness. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy for kidney complaint on the market and I have often advised their use." (Statement given November 14, 1905.)

Re-endorsement.
Mr. Spaulding was interviewed on May 25, 1911, and he said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and gladly confirm my former statement given in their praise. Whenever I have any trouble from my back or kidneys, I always take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and they act promptly. You may continue to use my endorsement." For sale by all dealers. Price 30 cents.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The I. O. G. T. will hold its regular meeting Wednesday evening. A class of ten or more is to be initiated and all members should make a strenuous effort to be present. Following the initiation will be the installation, after which a fine program will be given, the best of the season. Something unusual is in store directly after the closing.
Let all officers be present at 7:30 o'clock as very important business is on hand before the regular meeting. Per order committee.

Cards have been received by the members of last year's dancing class announcing that Prof. Elmore will come to Williamstown again this winter, beginning his classes in grange hall Friday evening, Nov. 10. Those who did not take advantage of the lessons last year would like to join the class this winter may do so Friday evening.

ABOUT THE STATE

Henry Patnode, while working in the woods at Morrisville Friday, had one foot caught by a rolling log, breaking the ankle in five places.

A buck deer, weighing perhaps 225 or 250 pounds, was pursued the other day around the hills of Brattleboro by a hound. Men tried to frighten off the dog, but the last seen of them was when the buck disappeared into the woods with its tongue hanging out, and apparently so fatigued as to stagger.

The operating revenues for the Inland railroad for September were $331-075.36 and the expenses were $208,807.89, giving a net operating revenue of $122-267.47. For the nine months ending September 30 the expenses were $1,870-610.93, the revenues being $2,537,422.05, giving a net operating revenue of $666-811.12.

The estate left by the late Col. Albert Clark, secretary of the Home Market club, Boston, amounted to $8,215.13, as well as a life insurance of $2,100. The estate consisted largely of 15 shares of steel common, 16 shares of Richmond Lace works, five shares Rochester Light and Power, and 20 shares of Amalgamated copper. Colonel Clark was a former resident of St. Albans.

The Franklin restaurant, at the top of a high hill in Winoski, was burned Saturday. No water was available and there was no fire fighting, facilities in that section. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin, colored, were asleep on the second floor when the fire broke out and had to jump from the windows in their night clothes in order to save their lives. Mr. Franklin carried no insurance on the furnishings, which were totally destroyed, with a sum of money which he did not have time to get. The origin of the fire is unknown, though there are some speculations of the case that would tend to show it was the work of incendiaries.

MAY HAVE BEEN BURNED.
John Patterson of Manchester Hasn't Been Seen Since Fire.

Manchester, Nov. 7.—The house of John Patterson of Manchester, Vt., was burned Saturday night and it is supposed that Mr. Patterson was burned to death. The man was seen getting off the evening train from Rutland and later entering his house in an intoxicated condition. Some time afterwards, the fire was discovered, but it had gained such headway that nothing could be done to save the structure.

It is believed that the man either dropped or knocked over a lamp. He had been living alone in the house recently, his wife having died last spring and his son recently. Search of the premises failed to reveal any trace of the missing man.

TWO JURORS OFF

Therefore Halt was Called in Burt Manslaughter Trial.
Rutland, Nov. 7.—In order that Juror John Learned of Timmough might attend the funeral of his fiancée, Miss Lucy Harvey, who died at Wallingford Saturday, and because there was urgent need of the presence of State's Attorney B. L. Stafford in Sudbury it was decided at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Rutland county court to take no more testimony until Wednesday morning in the case of State vs. Harley Burt of Pawlet, who is charged with manslaughter on the ground that he caused the death of Frank Smith of Pawlet October 28.

Last Saturday morning the trial was stopped and Juror Learned and Juror Carmody of West Rutland were allowed to separate from the rest of the panel because of family sorrows.
The panel, with the exception of these two, will be kept together until to-morrow.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

To-night at Barre Opera House, "The Goose Girl."

Is a king in rags and a queen in latters as lovable as the purple and crimson. You can answer this question for yourself if you see the production of "The Goose Girl," which comes to the Barre opera house to-night, Nov. 7.
"The goose girl," an attendant on a flock of geese, finally a sovereign on a throne in continental Europe, is the principal feature in what is Harold Mac-Grath's best work and which has been dramatized by Geo. D. Baker. "The Goose Girl" was one of the "best six sellers" of fiction. From cover to cover, there is heart interest, dramatic situations, royal love making, plotting and intrigue, everything one would expect and some things one would not look for when the lid of a continental kingdom was lifted and the interior exposed to view. All of the dramatic situations have been visualized and the rare Mac-Grath style preserved for the delectation of the theatregoer.

The company engaged in the portrayal of the different characters is said to be an ideal one, each member having been selected not only for capability, but further for the type created by the author. The scenic production is greatly enhanced by scenes of the locale of the play, which Mr. MacGrath himself photographed while in Europe.

The Richeson indictment.

The contrasts in the Linnell case have been so startling, with the substitution of criminal law for matrimony and the public background for the prison pen, that the public is likely to forget that an indictment is not a conviction, that grand jury proceedings are ex parte and that no man is guilty in the eyes of the law until he is proved so. The indictment of Richeson yesterday was expected by everybody, but even a man indicted on a charge of murder is a member of a trusting young girl is entitled to the presumption of innocence. It is cause for satisfaction that the preliminaries of the case have been attended to with such speed. Is it too much to hope that the trial itself may be so conducted that that, too, may be pointed to as a model of prompt judicial procedure?—Boston Evening Herald.

WARNING.
Anyone caught destroying or damaging property on the L. A. C. baseball grounds on Berlin street will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

For Neuralgia Pains

Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease Has Proven an Infallible Remedy.

Among hundreds of letters received from persons who have been afflicted with neuralgia and who have been relieved of suffering by Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease, the following is a fair sample. This letter was written by a former Vermont attorney and judge:

"After suffering with neuralgia in the face for a couple of days, after trying several remedies for relief, with no permanent result, I procured a bottle of "Mysterious Pain Ease" and used it as directed. I received relief in an incredibly short time.

"M. A. BINGHAM,
"Burlington, Vt."

Neuralgia comes quickly. It gives no long-distance warning. But it does not depart as quickly as it comes. Barnes' Mysterious Pain Ease is a wonderful remedy for this affliction. Try a bottle and keep a bottle in the house.

ESTATE OF JANETTE MARTIN.
STATE OF VERMONT. The Honorable District Court of Washington, ss: I, Probate Court for the District aforesaid: To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of Janette Martin, late of Barre in said District, deceased, Greeting: Whereas, application has been made to me in the City of Barre in said District, representing to said Court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money; And bringing into Court the consent and approval in writing of all the heirs to said estate, and ordering public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, and of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing; Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place as assigned, then and there in said Court to make objection to the granting of such license, if you see cause.
Given under my hand at Montpelier in said District, this 6th day of November, 1911.
